- Stay in the designated team area and support other team members during times when you are not competing.
- Follow all directions of team management / officials.
- Ensure that you have telephone numbers of team managers with you at all times that you are not with the team.

Consequences for breaches of this code by students

Team managers may deal immediately with any breaches of this code by imposing appropriate consequences, including not playing remaining fixtures, notification of parents, and being sent home at your parents' cost. Each regional school sport board is responsible for imposing any longer term consequences to your future participation in QSS events.

Students may be notified orally or in writing of a temporary ban from participating or attending QSS fixtures until formal processes are conducted by the regional school sport board to determine complaints under this Code. Students will be afforded natural justice in respect of breaches of this code and for any discipline under the EGPA.

Furthermore, QSS may provide a report to your school about your conduct and, as a school representative, you may be subject to discipline in accordance with the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 (EGPA).

Consequences for breaches of this code by parents / spectators

Team managers and event organisers may deal immediately with any breaches of this code by warning offenders about their conduct, asking offenders to leave venues, and calling police to intervene where necessary. Each regional school sport board is responsible for imposing any longer term consequences such as written warnings, or barring attendance at future events for a period or indefinitely.

Parents and spectators may be notified orally or in writing of a temporary ban from attending QSS fixtures until formal processes are conducted by the regional school sport board to determine complaints under this Code. Parents and spectators will be afforded natural justice in respect of breaches of this code.

Parents and spectators should note that it is an offence to insult (meaning "to treat insolently or with contemptuous rudeness, to abuse") an officer of a state educational institution in the presence or hearing of students – s.333(2)(b) Wilful Disturbance, of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 (EGPA). Breaches of this section of the EGPA may result in a complaint being made to police.
